Subject: Important - Foundation Board Member Survey - Please Read and Respond by Monday April 2nd, 2018

Importance: High

Dear Foundation Board Member:

Your Foundation Board President Suz Hunt, your nominating committee chair Marge Dodge and I have collaborated on a Spring 2018 Foundation Board Member Survey to gather your input relating to your interest in serving on the Foundation Board during the year ahead. Special thanks to Dr. Daniel Martinez for his technical expertise in refining the survey and putting it into the electronic format contained in this e-mail below.

The survey asks for your input on preferences for the Foundation Committee(s) that would be of greatest interest to you during the year ahead, along with your preferences on a number of operational practices of the organization.

We ask that you take a moment now to open the survey link included in this e-mail and share your preferences on board service for the year ahead. The survey has 20 questions, most of which are a "click the box" format. We estimate the survey should take approximately five (5) minutes to complete.

College of the Desert Foundation - Spring 2018 Board Member Survey

If for any reason you are not able to complete the survey electronically, Please let me know and I will get you a paper copy of the survey to complete by hand.

Thank you for taking a few minutes to share your feedback, preferences, and interests so we may better serve you during the year ahead.

With appreciation,

John

College of the Desert astronomy instructors and the college's Astronomy Club check out the donated 1-meter telescope inside the Mary Reagan Observatory at the college's Mecca/Thermal Campus.

Donor's Gift Brings Observatory to COD's Mecca/Thermal Campus

Dr. Joel L. Kinnamon, College of the Desert Superintendent/President, stands with astronomy instructors Michael Gariety and Ahmed ElShafie, and the COD Astronomy Club at the new Mary Reagan Observatory at the college's Mecca/Thermal Campus prior to the March 9 event to celebrate the new observatory and its 1-meter telescope.

The dark skies lit up the evening of Friday, March 9, 2018 as College of the Desert students, faculty members, staff, community friends and supporters gathered to celebrate the recently donated Mary Reagan Observatory and its 1-meter (40-inch) telescope at the COD Mecca-Thermal Campus.

The Observatory, telescope and related computers and equipment were donated by Palm Desert resident Ivoj Kudrnac to benefit College of the Desert students in astronomy and other Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) disciplines for years to come.

"We are so grateful for this generous gift," stated Joel L. Kinnamon, Ed.D., College of the Desert Superintendent/President. "All gifts big or small help our students reach for the stars."

Since the academic year 2011-12, almost 10,000 students have enrolled in transfer level STEM math and science courses. In addition, the College plans to expand upon its interdisciplinary offerings at COD Mecca/Thermal to support innovative programs that focus on topics such as understanding the desert environment, sustainability, and renewable energy.

While the main function of the Observatory will be teaching and learning, the College also plans to extend access to K-12 and community partners through future education events.

Seen in the crowd of over 130 attendees were

College of the Desert Foundation Board members Donna Jean Darby and Marge Dodge as well as COD Trustees Board Chair Becky Broughton and Trustee Bonnie Stefan with Superintendent/President Dr. Joel L. Kinnamon and Dr. John Mosser, COD Foundation Executive Director.

Also spotted were Riverside County Supervisor V. Manuel Perez, city of Palm Desert Councilmember Jan Harnik and Cathedral City Councilmember Shelley Kaplan.

Next up for COD Foundation: Stepping Out for COD, Wednesday, April 3, 2016 at 8 pm as the Emmy Award-winning actor-singer Lucie Arnaz brings her solo show Latin Roots to the McCallum Theatre to benefit College of the Desert.

A very special on-campus event was held recently at College Of the Desert. In fact, the word "beautiful" was heard in conjunction with everything from the weather to the tent, to the backdrop provided by the iconic Hilb Center and the Carreon Fountain of Knowledge.

The word "beautiful" was heard again when lunch arrived, prepared and served by Willy Rhine and his team from the 849 Restaurant.

College of the Desert President Joel L. Kinnamon certainly did his part – joyfully announcing a new program of guaranteed two year scholarships to cover tuition at COD for the high school class of 2018 freshmen!

It was all part of COD's annual State of the College program held at the Palm Desert campus. The COD pEDGE program addresses the financial barrier many students face, making higher education available for all local high school graduates.

"We do not want the cost of entry to keep students from pursuing their education," said Kinnamon, "We know that an education can be life changing for each student, their families, our community and our economy."

In addition to the scholarship program, Dr. Kinnamon also announced three more plans and programs for the coming year:

An exciting new Regional Center for Digital Education planned for the future West Valley Campus in Palm Springs. A new observatory at the Mecca/Thermal Campus. The beginning of construction that will double the size of the Indio Campus.

Seen in the crowd of over 130 attendees were.... Harold Matzner, Peggy Cravens, telescope donor Ivoj Kudrnac, COD Foundation president Suz Hunt, COD trustees Aurora Wilson and Becky Broughton. Also COD Foundation Past president Mark Nickerson supervisor V. Manuel Perez, assembly member Eduardo Garcia, mayors Robert Moon, Stan Henry, Sabby Jonathan and Michael Wilson; Digicom CEO David Vogel, Renova Energy founder and CEO Vincent Battaglia, acclaimed artist and COD alumnus Phillip K. Smith, III, and Riverside County sheriff Stan Sniff; Also spotted were....Jan Harnick, Glenn Miller, John Pena, Lisa Houston, Wendy Jonathan, Deborah McGarrey and COD Alumnus Paulina Larson.

The next COD fundraising event will be Stepping Out for COD on Tuesday, April 3, 2018, at 8 pm at the McCallum Theatre, featuring Lucie Arnaz, in a musical tribute to her Latin roots. Donor Scholarship Reception at College of the Desert

PALM DESERT, Calif. - Hundreds of College of the Desert students had a chance to meet and thank their scholarship donors at the 7th annual Donor Scholarship Reception.

The event also gives donors the opportunity to meet students who directly benefited from their generosity.

"We are very blessed and very thankful for all of these donors to be here and to express our gratitude towards them," said Kassidi Campbell, COD student.

Donors give the COD Foundation thousands of dollars annually to help students with tuition, books, childcare, and transportation.

The students apply for the scholarships and are studying various disciplines on campus.

Deepak Chopra speaks in Palm Springs series

Patricia Moloney Dugas
Special to Palm Springs Desert Sun
USA TODAY NETWORK

On his first trip to Palm Springs, Deepak Chopra, world-renowned pioneer in integrative medicine and personal transformation, quietly told the sold out audience that we are all part of a single body and single mind. Using an immense screen presentation of "where we came from" — out of 700 sextillion stars, we are all sitting here together. He again awed the guests by telling them their body is continually replacing itself every nine months. He quipped: "When you go on a trip, you can bring your old suitcase but you can't bring your old body." You have been transformed.

Deepak, is founder of The Chopra Foundation and co-founder of The Chopra Center for Wellbeing. He is the author of more than 85 books translated into over 43 languages. His other book, "Super Genes" focuses on the new genetics and is revolutionizing how we understand ourselves and the health of those around us.

As the guest speaker of the new Palm Springs Speaks series, Chopra talked about his new book written along with Rudolph E. Tanzi, Ph.D., "The Healing Self — A Revolutionary New Plan to Supercharge Your Immunity and Stay Well for Life." Everyone received a hardbound copy of this book.

There were VIP receptions before and the book signing after the speaker presentations. Chopra closed his program by leading the audience in a brief meditation.

Proceeds from the ticket sales will benefit Friends of the Palm Springs Public Library and the Palm Springs Cultural Center to encourage the development of the cultural arts in the Coachella Valley with a specific focus in the areas of film, fine art,

A note from Betty

High season is here — and it's a record-setting one, with as many as nine fundraising events on one day this month! Associate Director Trudy Tedder and her amazing volunteer reporters are doing a great job of coverage but our six pages of space cannot keep up with them.

This happens every February and March, when we are faced with two choices: Cover fewer events or put them in line to publish as space permits. We always opt for number two, which means that some of our reports must wait weeks for publication. I could tell you much more, but this is all the space available for me.

The Palm Springs Modern Committee, PS ModCom, presented one of the hottest Modernism Week parties — their annual Gala Benefit "La Fiesta Moderna" — a 1970's Spanish-inspired fiesta with a Palm Springs twist.

At the Rubinstein House at Tamarisk — Rancho Mirage, 400 guests were treated to an authentic Spanish gathering, enjoying fiesta cocktails and delicious tapas. The guests were festively attired in bejeweled boleros, matador outfits, and colorful Euro-retro inspired attire.

The highlight of the evening was a special performance by internationally acclaimed Flamenco superstar Timo Nunez of "World of Dance" and "So You Think You Can Dance" along with his impressive cast of musical and dance performers. Following the electrifying flamenco performance, the attendees mingled with Palm Springs jet setters while dancing the night away.

The party was held at the Rubinstein Estate, the last commission designed by renowned architect William F. Cody. It was graciously loaned for the party by homeowner Stephen Rose. The architectural masterpiece effortlessly combines modern elements with hacienda inspirations and is literally a time capsule, unaltered since the doors first opened in 1971 and is situated by the once famed movie star retreat, Tamarisk Country Club.

PS ModCom is a non-profit organization dedicated to the appreciation and preservation of Desert Modern architecture and design. The proceeds will be used to accomplish this through education, advocacy for threatened buildings, promotion of heritage tourism, and the celebration of successes in preservation and adaptive reuse.

Attending the gala were: PS ModCom executive director Nickie McLaughlin; Palm Springs Mayor Pro Tem JR Roberts; Shari Bouchard Applebaum, artist Randy Polombo; Erik & Ashley Rose; Charles Phoenix, actor Stephen Amell and his wife Cassandra Jean; Andy Allegaert and Tim Watts; Katherine and Greg Hough; and Kirk Brown III and Jill Wiltse.
